Terms

A non-refundable application deposit of $200 is due within seven (7) days upon application acceptance, which will then be automatically applied to your first tuition payment. The application fee will be sacrificed if the applicant withdraws the application or terminates registration.

Balances (Installments) are due the first week of each respective months mentioned above. Payment of 1st / Initial Installment (or In-Full Tuition Payment) is due on or before December 31, 2010. Upon payment, you will be sent the aforementioned educational resources and materials to initiate your GIFT Journey (payment is encouraged as soon as possible after acceptance to best maximize resources and materials prior to commencement of GIFT in January of 2011).

A 1.5% late fee penalty will apply to all overdue accounts. Accounts overdue by 30 days or more are grounds for dismissal at GIFT's discretion. Alternative arrangements may be considered at GIFT's discretion in the event of unanticipated "special needs" by the participant.

Cancellation Option

GIFT reserves the right to cancel its program offering if, prior to January 1, 2011, registration is inadequate to assure a quality learning experience for participants. In the event of cancellation, all fees will be returned to registrants.

Purpose

GIFT exists to provoke the promise that is inherent in the unique lives of each GIFT Fellow and in doing so, enable and encourage them to effectively enhance the lives of those they serve.

Vision

Lives will be transformed physically, mentally, and spiritually through the teaching and exploitation of Applied Functional Science. In doing so, GIFT will leave a living legacy of encouragement, achievement, and positive influence that will have global impact.

“The only limits are, as always,
those of vision.”
