FAST FACTS SUMMARY

FUNCTIONAL PERFORMANCE SYSTEM

- ▲ The NG360 Functional Performance System (FPS) powered by Gray Institute is an assessment and training program designed specifically for golf professionals and movement specialists who work with golfers. Based on Applied Functional Science from the Gray Institute, the NG360 FPS is designed to enable training and teaching professionals to gather competence in functional movement and achieve proficiency in prescribing training programs. Through successful application of the FPS, graduates will gain confidence in training and coaching, and build credibility in the world of athletic golf.

GOLF PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST ACCREDITATION

- ▲ Upon satisfactory completion of the NG360 FPS, graduates will be recognized as an NG360 Nike Golf Performance Specialist (NG360 GPS). As a GPS, each individual is empowered to be part of the Nike Golf team bringing true athleticism to the game of golf.

ADMISSION

- ▲ By registration – enrollment limited – acceptance of registration at the sole discretion of Nike Golf and Gray Institute.
